Mr. I. F. Williams
2161 West 28th Street
Los Angeles, California

Dear Mr. Williams:

What a pleasure it was to visit with you last week as I toured Camps Paige and Afferbaugh. It was our pleasure to have the opportunity to ride into town with you and to learn more from you of the real challenges involved in the school work in the camps. I am personally happy that a man of your caliber is willing to spend his life helping boys like these.

Our radio and television ministry now includes weekly thirty minute programs on more than 900 radio and television stations. I have taken the liberty to enclose copies of some of my recent radio sermons that I thought you might be interested in reading. Thank you so much for being so kind to Mr. Batts and myself during our recent trip.

Sincerely yours,

John Allen Chalk
Radio Speaker
